SIROCCO

Produkta kods: SIROCCO

Designed for professionals working in warm and hot climates, the SIROCCO coverall delivers a superior balance of comfort, visibility, and certified protection. Made from 100% fine cotton twill, it ensures excellent breathability and a soft touch, supporting all-day wear in high-temperature conditions. Reflective elements are strategically placed to enhance visibility in low-light and high-risk environments, strengthening overall safety. More than just comfortable and visible, the SIROCCO coverall meets recognized safety standards—making it a reliable choice for demanding marine and offshore settings where heat management and worker protection are essential.
